- Baoli Miami: Try the Tropical Maki appetizer, yum! In terms of a breathtaking view, you're definitely going to love the outside courtyard area. It's wonderful to take in the sights, and you can definitely grab some exceptional photo ops along the way. Make sure grab some fun pictures in front of their famous "My boyfriend is out of town" wall. Overall, the ambiance of this restaurant is amazing, and live music from the D.J. adds to the atmosphere. - Juvia: Located on the penthouse level of the garage by Herzog/de Meuron, Juvia offers a stunning vertical garden with their dining room. The grilled Salmon and a Mushroom risotto are particularly delicious. Whether you go in for drinks or a meal, Juvia offers one of the most beautiful views to be found for Miami Spice Week 2015 in SoBe. (Miami Spice Lunch Menu)

- Cecconi's: This is one of our top 7 Miami restaurants for a reason. Not only is the Italian cuisine simply to die for, the garden dining option allows you to enjoy your meal in fantastic style. Relax, enjoy a meal from popular executive chef Sergio Sigala, and grab as many photo opportunities as you possibly can. (Miami Spice Dinner & Lunch Menu)

- Essensia Restaurant + Lounge: A seasonal menu is just one of the highlights of this Miami Spice 2015. This is a great spot for vegans and vegetarians, with the Roasted Vegetable Tian being a particularly tasty dish. Essensia offers remarkable outdoor ambience.
